DECLASSIFIED

FOREIGN SERVICE DESPATCH

From: AmEmbassy, London April 3, 1959

To: The Department of State, Washington

Subject: Compensation certain British Ambassadors

The following figures (converted at the rate of $2.82 to £1.0.0) give the salary and tax-free expense allowances of British Ambassadors at certain posts. These appeared in the London Daily Express of March 24, 1959. They were taken from the Foreign Service Budget Estimates for the British Fiscal Year ending March 31, 1960.

Post	Salary	Expenses
Washington	$16,860	$95,203
Paris	16,860	67,370
U.N.O.	16,860	41,264
Rome	16,860	33,369
Bonn	16,860	32,596
Commissioner-Gen. for South-East Asia (Singapore)	16,860	32,048
Moscow	11,942	33,495
Brussels	11,942	33,270
Madrid	16,860	26,175
The Hague	11,942	30,174

REC'D 6-17-81
EXEMPTIONS
FA cf POI EXEMPTIONS

The Ambassadors listed occupy Govern'-owned or leased houses, the maintenance of which is paid for by the Government. The allowance for expenses includes entertainment, household servants and, in a few cases, may include educational allowances for children 18 years and under.

DECLASSIFIED